To promote digestion and for use as a stomachic, after the midday meal, Ayer's Catarrh Pills have no equal.

As a stomachic, when the digestive organs are inactive and need stimulating, especially after dinner, nothing can equal Ayer's Pill.

Coal mine operators in the Jellico district have announced a cut of 30 percent. in the mining scale. The miners are agreed to a 10 per cent. reduction.

JUDY BARR has refused to reduce the sentence of Henry Zink, convicted at Louisville of sending obscene pictures through the mails. He got two years in the pen.

Our old friend and former citizen, John A. Fisher of Florence, Kansas, has splendid property in that enterprising town that he will exchange for property in this section.

Mrs. MUNS, a preacher of the general Baptist persuasion, has been granted license to solemnize the rites of matrimony. So far as known she is the only woman in Kentucky who has been given this privilege.

For eight months of the present fiscal year the revenue from whiskey, beer and tobacco have declined $12,000,000, or $1,500,000 a month. This illustrates how the consumption of these articles is affected by the hard times.

ELLIOTT county has the youngest Sheriff in the state. He is 23 years old. He has had to kill one man and cripple a pair of others. It is said that a man is not fully qualified to fill the office in that county until he has killed six men.

The books of the People's Building Association are now open for subscription to stock in the Fourth Series commencing Saturday, May 18, 1894. Call on Robert L. Baldwin, Secretary; John Duley, Treasurer; C. L. Sallee, Attorney, or any of the Directors.

WARRANTS have been served on the old Lexington City Council to attend court at Frankfort, where J. H. Mulcahey the pants drummer brought suit against the city for $10,000 damages for use of his impudent. Mulcahey brought similar suits against several cities in the state.

HAMILTON CARMICHAEL of Jersey Ridge was the first man in the City Service examination in this city. He passed the clerk-carrier examination, making a record of 74.61 per cent. The minimum is 70 per cent. Under the rules this gives him the first vacancy in either the clerk or carrier service, as he may elect.

C. P. DISTRICT & BROS. have more bulk seeds than any other firm in Mason county.

TAT PEANUT CANDY. A delightful eat. Only 5 cents per package.

JOHN C. PEACON.

The C. and O. Depot at South Point is haunted. So is every other railroad depot—haunted by loafers.

HENRY F. DOWLING, of New York City, ex-U. S. Consul to Africa under Hayes, was a caller on Mayor Mohs of Cincinnati. Mr. Dowling wishes the defeat of the Separate Coach Law, now in effect on the C. and O. R.

FRASER G. JOHNSON forgot to procure a marriage license, and the ceremony uniting him to Mary Francis Eddy at the Campbell Street Christian Church, Louisville, had to be stopped until the necessary papers could be secured at the courthouse.

A GENTLEMAN who owns some desirable property offers to put it in, with enough cash to make $10,000, for the purpose of building a new hotel in this city. It needs only nine more just like him, and the enterprise will be a go.

TOM MULLANE the baseball pitcher is $90 behind in his payments of alimony to his wife. Judge Buchwaltner of Cincinnati has directed that a rule be issued against him requiring him to appear and show cause for his failure to comply with the Court's order.

DICK STRAWDER's baseball club of Lawrence Creek was in Saturday afternoon to wipe Professor J. R. Spurgeon's club out of existence, but they are now convinced that they struck a knot. The Wilson Bill with its free Canadian humor provided will knock the building, was finally burned, loss several thousand, with small insurance.

W. B. MATTHEWS & CO. are running only one or two days a week, and they see no immediate prospects of a betterment. The Wilson Bill with its free Canadian humor provided will knock the building, was finally burned, loss several thousand, with small insurance.

THE MANCHESTER DAILY says Miss Mollie Rose received cancelled stamps by the basketful. The postage alone on the packages sent would in a short time amount to $100. Through a few lines in the泰晤士报, kind-hearted ladies and gentlemen have handed on several thousand, which have been forwarded to the unfortunate young lady.

ADDRESS TO THE A. P. A.

President President Taylor Urged Renewed Political Activity.

W. J. H. TRAYNOR, Supreme President of the American Protective Association and publisher of The Patriotic American at Detroit, Mich., has issued an official address to that effect.

He states that his travels in the West have convinced him that the A. P. A. is a mighty force, which no power on earth is potent enough to restrain, although monopoly, the press, a large proportion of the Protestant clergy—to their shame and ignorance he said—correct politicians and the priesthood have joined issue to suppress it.

He reminds members that despite local victories the alleged "center of corruption and National danger" viz., the National Legislature and Government, remains apparently as powerful as ever.

He exhorts every member to attend conventions and independently of party "elect only true and worthy members of the Order, or equally good and reliable citizens, as delegates or representatives."

He refers to the other so-called patriotic organizations recently formed as "another ingenious weapon forged by the enemy," and advises that they be quietly let alone.

The address exhorts persistent opposition to immigration as a primary source of financial panic and "the main avenue of Priestly supremacy," and advocates taxation of all property, "ecclesiastical palaces" included, public inspection of convents and vigilant guarding of the franchises and the Public Schools against "the brood of foreigners and abolitionists."

In conclusion the President suggests as a watchword Wendell Phillips' utterance, "The uneducated ballot is the winding sheet of liberty."

Cincinnati Commonwealth.—The line of defense pursued by Mr. Breckinridge in his entanglement with Miss Pollard is being abandoned, and the management of the newspaper will likely be left in his dilemma. Whatever the verdict of the jury proves to be, he will probably continue his literary career for the time being, if he still has it, and will still have left to him a home and perchance, a forgiving wife. But what shall become of the plaintiff in the jewel of her disgrace, except she has made a man as only a woman can, the penalty of her wrongdoing and shame? The whole trial presents a tragic picture, wrapped in mystery and fear, and the words words past condoning. Say that a woman, over-taxed, chafing under the burden imposed upon her by the misfortune of her youth, and the austerities of her youth, sought a man of her own, a lure of a lure in the guise of sympathy and love, and falls from the summits of virtue to the frowns and tears of the thoughtless crowd. The world looks coldly upon her. Her life is to suffer, and to sin again she has no power for to meet the frowns and tears of the thoughtless crowd. The world looks coldly upon her. Her life is to suffer, and to sin again she has no power for to meet the frowns and tears of the thoughtless crowd.

YES, Brother MARSH, it was "over-production" that caused all the trouble and hard times—over-production of foreign voters in the cities of New York and Chicago.

WELL, if Br'er ROLLER HART will run for Congress, and if he gets the nomination, well won't SAM PUGG keep the 'sleeters off him while he's makin' the race?

THERE are every-day evidences that "Zea" Reed is a much "biger" man than any living Democrat at Washington. His declaration when defending the large appropriations of the Republican Congress, that "this is a Billion Dollar Country," will no longer be ridiculed by the Democratic press. The Democratic Congress has outstripped the Republican in the matter of "throwing away the people's money." The aggregate appropriations of the present session, reported by Democratic authority, is expected to touch $370,000,000. Eight of the great appropriation bills have already been reported to the House, and three of them have been passed. The total of these in their present stage is $30,041,750. This is about $150,000,000 more than the same bills carried two years ago.

YOU may protest as much as you please, Brother MARSH, but the workingmen are still howling.

SYRACUSE, March 22d.—The wholesale clothing house of W. S. Peck & Co. is obliged to reduce the wages of its employees 10 per cent, on account of the tariff uncertainty. The 100 employees decided not to accept the reduction.

AMSTERDAM, N. Y., March 22d.—The Sanford Carpet Mills will be closed Thursday and Saturday of this week and thereafter on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. The mills have been running on full time for six weeks, and $10,000 in wages have been paid out.

PHILADELPHIA, March 22d.—Several hundred weavers in the dress goods mill of Foilwell Brothers & Co. have struck to have a former rate of wages restored. The striking rug weavers at John Bromley & Sons' mills have decided to remain out until the firm recalls its recent notice of a reduction of wages.

Executions of judgment notes aggregating $24,568 were issued against B. English & Sons, dealers in cloaks, coats and furs, No. 1030 Chestnut Street.

RODON, N. Y., March 22d.—The wages of 100 employees in Horatio Boile's leather shop, except the stone cutters, have been reduced 15 cents a day, owing to dull business. The stone cutters were reduced 25 cents a day, but some of them refused to work for the reduction, and they are now receiving their usual pay.

AMSTERDAM, N. Y., March 22d.—As an evidence of the Cleveland high times existing in the New York Valley, three farms and two houses and lots were sold today in this city at mortgage foreclosure sales. Similar sales are occurring almost daily.

PITTSBURGH, March 22d.—The wages at the mill of the Gross-Mondale Company at North Grosvenor Dale will be reduced Monday, April 3d. This is the largest mill in Eastern Connecticut.

[To be continued throughout the entire existence of this Democratic-British-Free-trade-Administration.]

RICH, BOLD AND BRAINY.

Boggs' Express.—A paper to watch is Oscar B. Boggs' "Premier to the Cape Colony" in Africa, who has been talking so freely to the home Government. He is described as having "the face of Caesar, the ambition of a Loyola and the wealth of a Cromwell," and such a combination should be heard from. But probably the correspondent's imagination is largely responsible for the combination.

A TIMELY DEMAND.

Baltimore, America.—It would be a great thing for the country if a Congressional Corbett could give a knock-out blow to that latest British invasion, the ex-ecutive income tax.

A MISSOURI OPINION.
St. Louis Globe Democrat.—The income tax will not kill the Wilson Bill, but it will help to kill the Democratic party. Then the Republicans will make quick work of that measure.

DEMOCRATIC VIEW.

Paducah News.—The St. Louis Republican is dealing Mr. Roosevelt and his Civil Service Commission some heavy blows. It will never let that aggregation of humbuggy a lick amiss unless it misses.

EASILY DIAGNOSED.
Indiansburg Journal.—The idea seems to be getting about that Mr. Cleveland is a victim of some sort of mental disease. The Journal is of the opinion that it is simply an old fashioned case of big head.

JOHN FOR CONGRESSIONAL CARRIERS.
St. Louis Star-Sapling.—The men who carried Congressman Wilson around the House of Representatives may soon have another job of a similar kind or head. If the Wilson Bill lunacy is persisted in, the next thing they will be carrying will be the corpse of the Democratic party.

NOT BUILT THAT WAY.
Wheeling Intelligencer.—If the Virginia stick to the Democratic party in spite of the Wilson Bill, it will mean that they have lost the ambition to develop them selves and prefer to go backward. West Virginia is not built that way. She will turn her back on the party that crushes her industries and arrests her further development.

GREAT OLD TIMES.
Judge.—Sunday School Teacher—Now, about what time did Moses live?

Baby—About two thousand B. C. Sunday School Teacher—Quite right, and what does B. C. mean?

Baby—I guess it means before Cleve land, because dad said there was great land.

OWNED NOTHING HIMSELF.

Argonaut.—At a church meeting in one of the suburbs of Chicago, the inquiry was made whether certain lawyer of the congregation, whose financial affairs were said to be in a parlous condition, had got religion.

To which another lawyer present responded: "No, I think not, unless it's in his wife's name."

REAPING WHERE HE HAD Sown.

Life.—Widow—I want a stone for my husband's grave exactly like the other one in the lot.

Agent—But isn't it a trifle small for a man of your husband's prominence?

Widow—No, sir! If Thomas thought a stone like that was good enough for his first wife, I guess it's plenty good enough for Thomas.

COXEY'S ARMY

Of 10,000 Commonwealers Dwindle to Seventy-Five.

The General in State in a Carriage, Marshall a Horseback,

With the Bag-Tag Afoot Leave Massillon on the March to Washington—A Snow-Storm Sets In and a Number Desert—Arrive in Camp at Canton.

CANTON, Ohio, March 26.—Coxey's army of the Commonwealth moved out of Massillon Sunday on schedule time. There were perhaps 75 stragglers in line at the start and 25 less when Canton 8 miles away was reached. Carl Brown, chief marshal, headed the procession. He was followed by half a dozen aids, all mounted on horses belonging to Coxey, who rode in a carriage drawn by a pair of spruced steeds.

The procession consisted of the marshal, Coxey, his wife and sister, a bugler, a covered wagon, a team of horses, a camping outfit, baled straw and several quarters of beef, a brass band that played all kinds of music at once, and the soldiers of the commonwealth on foot. They marched single file and two abreast, a pleased step. With very few exceptions they were a hardy lot, of whom the men whom they claimed was not their fault, but the fault of our system of government.

The weather was pleasant when the start was made, but the procession was soon overtaken by a snow-storm. This had a depressing tendency and a number of desertions were reported before Edgerton, the first stop, was reached. After a brief stay at Edgerton, the army resumed its onward march and reached Canton shortly after 6 o'clock, where camp Lexington was pitched.

On the march from Massillon to Canton the commonwealth army was followed by a mob of nearly a thousand people, in carriages, on horseback and afoot. They made the welkin ring with cheers and a noise constantly bawling and lifting his hat.

On reaching Canton the army was greeted by fully 10,000 people, who were crowded on the sidewalks and in windows and balconies along Tuscarawas street. Every one regarded the affair as a big joke and good humor prevailed throughout. The crowd was pitched on a roost near the workhouse, shortly after 6 o'clock, and the trump, constituting the army of the commonwealth at once began building a massive barricade upon the ground and raised a scaffold upon which to keep comfortable during the night.

The army had to start on its march without the "Gods of Peace," as no maiden could be found to insure that reid, instead of a goddess a burly Negro had been enlisted to carry the banner, thus giving the patriotic representation in the movement.

One group of five soldiers deserted in a body before Canton was reached. Their marshal thought the celestial powers were not exercising proper discretion in sending a snow-storm to hold the advance guard and had his men to break for a passing freight train. They broke, and have not been heard from since. It is feared by some of Coxey's lieutenants that there will be more desertions before morning unless the weather moderates, owing to the prevalence of comfortable haymows in the neighborhood.

Coxey's life insurance policy has been revealed, the officials of the company fearing he may meet with a violent end before finishing the present enterprise. Coxey is enthusiastic about his plan, and has no fear that it far exceeds his most sanguine expectations, but this is hardly in keeping with his former declarations. Canton and Massillon were both crowded Sunday with people who had come in from surrounding towns and cities to witness the sight.

With the ground covered to the depth of half an inch with snow, nothing to eat but a short supply of bread and cheese, and a little straw to sleep on, the Coxey recruits were in anything but a joyful mood.

Minutemen had to be sent to the big encampment where the commonwealth army is quartered in lead and general Coxey's soldiers declare things must improve at once or they will go back to begging. Coxey and his lieutenants are still active and are endeavoring to keep their following in line, with confidence by making speeches, which, however, do not seem to have the desired effect.

Coxey said Sunday night: "I am now satisfied that I will be followed into Washington and joined by the people but that we have actually come and they will begin failing in numbers. Up to this time they have been afraid that we were bluffing. Now they see that we mean business."

Dr. Kirtland, of Pittsburgh, known as "The Cyclone," arrived in Canton Sunday and joined the army. He says he has figured out by astrology that this is to be the grandest move the world has ever seen. Even if it were to die out new, it would be revived again. He knows this, because the stars.

Nearly all the noted cranks in Ohio are now here, expressing determination to join Coxey. The army is expected to leave Canton at noon Monday for Louisville, O., where Camp Peffer will be named in honor of Senator Peffer, of Kansas, who introduced the good roads and non-interest bearing bond bill.

Lieut. Browne announced Sunday night that seven groups of five from Canton and two from Cleveland had just been enlisted. Solon C. Thayer, chief counsel for Coxey, got his course, and resigned on reaching Canton. Oklahoma Sam was appointed his successor. John O'Neill, of Cleveland, was appointed chief of the commonwealth marshal's staff. Coxey says he has no assurances that sympathetic criticians of Canton will feed his men on boiled ham and potatoes Monday morning.

It is bulletin board late Sunday night. Marshal Brown says:

"You boys are behaving yourselves honorably, and all the sneers about tramps and vagabonds that are being hurled at you by a portion of the press will not stop us from giving you a hearty hand." Pay attention to the sneering of those who have never felt the pangs of hunger, but be true to yourselves and it will cause others to be true to you."

Nearly fifty of Coxey's recruits applied for lodgings in the city prison Sunday night, and were accommodated.

WESTERN DIVISION STRANDED.

Neither Pacific Ties Up Freight Train

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., March 26.—The Southern Pacific officials received word Sunday night that the industrial army of several hundred men were put off the trains at a siding near Finlay Station, on the El Paso division, and that trains were run through without stop.

The so-called army broke the switch and threw it open, causing the next east-bound freight train to take the siding. The men climbed upon the cars, and Conductor Martin pulled them to safety, where he set up the train, pending orders from General Superintendent Van Vleck.

Officers came to him to keep the train tied up, as the company had decided not to carry the men. Several other trains arrived at Finlay, and the switch was set to let any of the trains go without them. Finlay is in an isolated section, and the army will be stranded out if they remain there a few days.

Two-Thirds Burned.

ALLIANCE, Ohio, March 26.—Alliance sent a large crowd of people to Massillon Sunday evening to the start of Coxey's Commonwealth army. They arrived home Sunday evening and say that two-thirds of the army are burns. Those who intended joining in the "On to Washington" march backed out upon learning of the situation.

The battle is to be fought at Finlay.
